A Word from The Director

Hi and welcome to Lancing Reps' production of Caramba's Revenge.

This is the second play that I have had the pleasure to direct and I have been very lucky to have a dedicated cast. I would like to thank Annette, Susan, Rosie, Lindsey and Kellie for agreeing to play ladies much older than themselves as after all, we ladies usually try hard to make ourselves look younger most of the time!

Also I should like to thank Jordan and Billie for managing to play their scenes without laughing!

Our rehearsals have been great fun with many late nights so a big apology to everyone that I kept late; hopefully you will see the extra time was all worth it.

Finally I should really like to thank everyone who worked behind the scenes to make the show possible, especially to my assistant director Meg.

Thank you for coming and please sit back and enjoy the show.

Susie Pickett
Director

Caramba's Revenge

Set in a little run-down terraced house, four senior citizens, fed up with their lot, have set up a co-operative to try to pool their money to make ends meet.

But is everything as it first appears?

When one of the ladies granddaughter's arrive from Australia to surprise her granny, she may find more than she expected...
