DIRECTOR'S NOTE

When Sue Duncan suggested the play Holiday At Home, I couldn't refuse. It has some amazing twists and turns and a fantastic plot. The cast have been working very hard to create this play and I am so proud of them. There is also a fantastic team behind the scenes who have worked equally as hard to create the beautiful set and design the lighting and sound.

I should like to thank my cast and the backstage crew for their help but especially thanks to Sue who has worked tirelessly to make this happen. I hope you enjoy.

Billie Poulton

SCENES

Holiday at Home - a comedy by Colin Barrow. The action takes place in the drawing room at Thrivington Hall, the home of Lady Boucher, where the story of a spate of jewellery thefts unfolds. As some locals gather with their concerns, Lady Boucher and her butler Scribbins fabricate an Italian holiday, but stay at home to avoid hosting the next burglary. With a murder, it becomes a growing puzzle for Inspector Warwick to solve.
